RUNAWAY.—A horse attached to a light spring-wagon, in charge of a small boy, ran away near the foot of Fifth-street yesterday afternoon, and but for the aid of some persons who witnessed the affair would have broken his neck, and demolished the vehicle against a train of cars, which happened to be passing at the time. Weary of Life and Wearler of Wife-A Modern Othello Cuts His Throat SATURDAY..... DECEMBER 3 with a Razor.

A negro barber named William Certer, who resides near the corner of Sixth and Culvertresides near the corner of Sixth and Culvertstreet, for several years past has been troubled with a wife, who, he avers, spends all the money he can make for dress, and is not any too careful of her husband's honor. She insists upon promenading the streets when she should be attending to his comforts, and going to balls and parties when she should be in his bosom; arousing him early in the morning, or very late at night, to admit her when she returns from her masquerading, and in delivering, in the shrillest tones, the most emphatic Caudle lectures, when he expestulates with her and complains of her naughty ways.

WBYS. For a long time be bore this treatment, and with entreaties tried to win his erring wife back, and the duty she had forgotten, but without avail. The thoughts to which her conduct gave rise, troubled him during the day, and many a face passed from beneath his hand not more than half shaved, in consenand not more than half shawed, in consequence of the mental agony he suffered, originating in the conduct of his wife.

Once he left her, but the Xantippe followed and brought him back; still his jealousy and her misdeeds annoyed him. Yesterday he became as weary of his life as he was of his wife, and in a fit of desperation seized a ranor and inflicted a terrible gash in his throat with a view to rid himself of both "at one fall avoon." He falled, however, and a physician swoop." He falled, however, and a physician being summoned, dressed his wound, and declared that he would not die. Let us hope that his ebony worser-half will henceforth give him no cause to regret that his success in attempting to detroy himself was incomplete.

PALMER'S ROTARY PUMP.—We are glad to have the opportunity to say that Captain Oliver Palmer has made Cincinnati, as well as Boston have the opportunity to say that Captain Oliver Palmer has made Cincinnati, as well as Boston and Buffalo, a point for the manufacture of his new patent pump. The resr part of McLean's Oil-mill Building, East Third-street, on Miami Capal, is now full of activity in getting up a large supply for the West of these simple, compact and effective pumps, invented by Captain Palmer. We witnessed the operation of large and small sizes, yesterday, and can say that the right invention has been made in this pump, in lifting and forcing water at light expense. We are not very good in describing mechanical contrivances, but we can say that we saw a small pump which is not larger than an ordinary sized wooden bucket working away like mad, lifting up and forcing through a one inch nozzle, to a distance of one hundred and ninety feet, a volume of water equalling a discharge of four hundred gallons of water per minute. There are six sizes. We saw one work which would discharge, from a wrecked vessel, ten thousand gallons of water per minute, at a lift of trom eight to fifteen feet. They are portable, easily adjusted, they need no packing, no tinkering, or repairs; they can discharge refuse water in which are chips, oakum, junk, grain, &c., without choking or obstructing the regular and continued action of the pump. These are what are wanted on the coast, to drain marshes, overflow of levees, &c. The Brooklyn Waterworks tried them and say "they will raise and discharge mud, gravel, culck-sand, and the works tried them and say "they will raise and works tried them and say "they will raise and discharge mud, gravel, quick-sand, and the like, in any quantities, if there is enough water with it to take suction. Half the volume we have discharged has been gravel and sand." That's what is wanted on wrecked vessels, particularly in the Mississippi River. The Captain is manufacturing here, also, his Portable Steam-engine, one of them drives his whole, machinery, lathes, pumps, &c. These portable engines are a new and a much needed contrivance; they are cheap and can be taken to any needed point. But there is one of the Power Pump which sells for one of the Power Pump which sells for $125, which should commend them to manufactories subject to fires, and should reduce the rates of insurance. The pump is placed in the lowest story and connected with a pipe running through the roof. On each floor, and on the roof may be attachments for hose, and the power of the machinery applied will drown out any break out of a configuration. Owners of furniture factories and country mills should take a note hereof. We cordially welcome to our city a thoroughly business firm, who will take a forward place. In the ranks of the manufacturers who are building up and ad-vancing Cincinnati. These novel pumps are worthy of examination and experiment.

WONDERFUL EFFECT OF ADVERTISING-AN UMBRELLA RETURNED.—If any one doubts the efficacy of advertising in the PENNY PERS, we would state, miraculous as it may seem, that an individual who lost his umbrella, and for advertising it in our columns barely escaped incarceration in the Lunntic Asylum, positively had the article returned to him yesterday: the miracle of honesty being a constant reader of our little journal. We do not believe that so wonderful an instance of the success of advertising has a precedent; and we are certain we never heard of a parallel.

A paper whose advertisements will induce a man to return an appropriated umbrella, must exercise an influence more subtle than metaphysics can penetrate and broader than mathematics can measure. We need no better acquaintance of our excellence than the fact we have recorded, not only as a medium of advertising. but as a great moral instructor. Who, until the Panny Passs was established, ever heard of a mortal returning an umbrella? Great is the Passs, and advertising is its "profits."

EXAMINATION OF CLOWNINGER FOR PASSING COUNTREPERT COIS.—On Wednesday last, we noticed the arrest, by United States Deputy Marshal Barbour, of a man named L. E. Clouniager, upon a charge of passing counterfeit coin. Yesterday morning he was taken before Commissioner Newhall and committed the default of $1.00 for his passing counterfeit coin. in default of $1,000, for his appearance before the next term of the United States Circuit Court. Upon his person were found $700 or $800 in counterfeit bank-notes, consisting of $5's, on the Merchant's Bank of Virginia at Lynchburg; 20's on the Bank of the State of Missouri; 3's on the National Bank of Illinois at Equality; 10's on the Hadly Falls Bank of Massachusetts at Holyoke; 20's on the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank of Waynes-burg, Penn., and one or two $100 bills on the Bank of West Union, Ohio, which, however, has been broken for such a length of time that every body has become aware of the fact save some busolic merchant who does business at

Indignation Meeting in the Third Ward .The People versus the City Council -Violent Means to be Adopted to Prevent the Establishment of the New City Prison. The call issued by the citizens of the Third Ward to hold an indignation meeting in re-gard to the late action of the City Coun-cil in accepting the offer of the School Board, permitting the Third District School-house to be converted into a Prison and Work-house for the female city prisoners, drew quite a large number of persons last evening to the High-street Baptist Church.

The meeting was organized by electing Wm.

J. Schultz, Esq., to the Chair, and appointing William Williams, Secretary.

Upon motion, a Committee consisting of nuel Hirst, Lewis Hanman, Conrad Schultz, Frederick Schatzman and John Krauth was appointed to draft a set of resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting in regard to the matter which had colled them together. During the absence of the Committee Mr. Kiersted, the Conneilman from the Ward, addressed the assembly, stating that he had carnestly opposed the action of the Council in accepting the offer of the School Board, but that it had passed that body by a large vote.

Thomas A. Logan then addressed the meeting, speaking of the injury which would be done the neighborhood if the proposed plan be carried, and when he had concluded the committee entered and made the following report: RESOLUTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE.

Whenexs, By the action of the City Council, at a recent meeting, it was resolved to convert the Third District School house into a Prison and Work-house for female vagrants, and the School Board, by granting the use of said house for that purpose, have committed a great outrage upon this community, and forced upon us a great moral nuisance, one which is certain to be a source of annoyance to ourselves and wives, and of corruption to our children, presenting constantly to their view the lowest depths of degradation, and accustoming their ears to the vilest kind of language, the location of the house being such as to render it impossible to seclude it from WHEREAS, By the action of the City Council, as to render it impossible to seclude it from he adjacent houses, and to present it in full view to the whole neighborhood, and Whereas, We have suffered for a series of years from a course of unjust legislation to this portion of the city, by having our principal and only thoroughfare obstructed and travel on it rendered dangerous by being converted from its legitimate uses to the conveniences of a Railroad Company, and its constant co-cupation by locomotives and cars, in conse-quence of which property has depreciated in value and the vicinity become almost entirely unfit for residences and manufactories, and all other kinds of business driven to other portions of the city. Again, by taking from among us our school and removing it to an inconvenient and unsafe distance for many of inconvenient and unsaie distance for many of us, thereby almost depriving us of its advantages. And again, by giving up, to another Railroad Company what little remained to us of our street, making travel over it so inconvenient and dangerous as to fit it for any other than railroad uses, and by various other acts of unjust legislation have our rights not only been disregarded but trampled upon till, by this last and cunning act of injustice, forbearance has ceased to be a virtue with us; there-

Resolved, That we will resist, by avery lawful means, the establishment in our midst of such a moral lazar-house, as this prison-house will certainly be, this receptuate of the vilest of the vile, the offscourings of the city, thrust almost into our very dears, subjecting our children to the contaminating influences of such vice, the very sight of which, and the constant exhibition of its existence, will blunt their moral sense and degrade their minds.

Resolved, That our Trustees in the City Jouncil and School Board are hereby instructed to use every means in their power to induce those bodies to rescind their action and save us from the infliction of so great a wrong, with all its demoralizing influences.

Resolved, That although we are a lawsbiding, and have been a patient and long-suffering people, yet, if the city authorities persist in forcing this terrible nuisance upon us against our protest, then we will no longer allow our rights to be trampled upon and ourselves to be treated with contempt, but will resist its establishment in our midst by force, and, if necessary to prevent it, will tear the house to the ground, or burn it, sooner than allow its use for such a purpose.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to take such action as to them may eem best to prevent the establishment of this prison, and to call another meeting of the citzens of the ward whenever in their judgment it may be necessary.

Resolved, That the officers of this meeting furnish the Councilmen of the ward and the School Trustees with copies of these resolutions.

THE DISCUSSION.

After the report of the Committee had been read, Mayor Bishop arose and stated the grounds upon which the late action of the Council was based, giving the motive that had promp-ted it, and showing what he conceived to be the mistake into which the citizens of the ward had fallen in supposing the projected prison would be a nuisance, saying that the terms upon which it had been offered to the city would protect the neighbood, and asking them to inquire of those persons residing on Western-row, near the present City Prison, whether they experienced any bad effects from living contiguous to it. He was several times, however, rudely interrupted, and was followed by Mr. Logan, who violently denounced the action on the part of the city, and favored the passage of the resolutions, which were then taken up seriatim, and passed vociferously. After the resolutions had been passed the

After the resolutions had been passed the last one was amended so as to appoint two Committees, each to consist of five persons; the first to inquire into what legal measures might be adopted to prevent the establishment of the the City Prison in the Third Ward, and the second to provide the Council with copies of the above resolutions and make arrangements for another meeting to beld on Monday evening. The following Committees were then appointed and the meeting adjourned:

Third-street was quite animated yesterday a spite of the very disagreeable weather, and Mon-yed transactions were as numerous as usual. Curency was in better supply than for two days pre lous, but inferior to the demand, which continued

Effect the Bankers.

The Discount-houses have more offerings of good Paper than they can accommodate, and the names in the street are difficult of negotiation at any price. Eastern Exchange was rather scarce yesterday, the domand being above the quantity on hand. Dealers often paid 30c, premium, though is was the regular buying rate. Little is disposed of across the counter, and bankers are forced to make it by seturning bank-notes.

on the surface of the country and bankers are forced to make it by seturning bank-notes.

In Coin, New Orieans Exchange, Time-bills and Uncurrent Money we hear of no alteration.

The New York news was again unfavorable to four yesterday; and the market was quiet here. Whilsiy was dull and Mc. lower. The demand for flogs was brisk, and prices were lo per cent higher, the sales reaching 1,824 head. A better demand from speculators was experienced for Mees Pork, but buyers and holders could not agree on prices. Other Provisions were firm. Grains were steady, as was every other article in the market.

Thursday's New York Times observes in regard Chursday last: In the Discount market there is a little more firm-ness shown on 4@5 month's paper, and the excep-tions below 7 per cont per annun. even on very choice cames, are rare. Bills bearing 60@40 days to run, of the best class, continue to be done, outside of Bank.

the best class, confidue to be done, outside of Bank, at 6395/p or cent. On temporary loan the rates for Money among the Stock Brokers are, as usual of late, to 6 per cent, with a good inquiry in particular quarters early in the day, at the outside figure. There was not much done in axchange for the Hamburg stoamer sailing to-morrow, but some parcels of Bullon will go by her for London and Parks, to land at Southampton, say $400,000 in Gold and $50,000 in Silver.

lver. The Boston Post, in its weekly review of Finance,

The indications are that at the close of the year Money will be rather closer than it has recently been. In Boston, to be sure, there is no unifavorable change as yet; and, indeed, the demand for Money is temporarily less than that which has been lately current. But Exchange with New York is ruling against this city, and our bank specie has declined to less than the millions. The aggregate can not be further diminished to any extent, without inducing some little contraction, which is likely to be increased by the general feeling in favor of small transactions and close actiements at New York.

New York Cattle Market.—Thursday morning, becember 1: The Live Stock markets have been well supplied during the week, but were not overstocked, as has been the case most of the time during the attumn. For the week ending yesterday, the total receipts at the regular yards of live animals destined for slaughter, nambered: Beef cattle, 4,33; veal calves, 55; sheep and lambs, 14,430; swine, 14,405; also of minch cows, 15. At yesterday's general weekly market, beeves sold at first rather better than last week, but closed dull, with 200 ansold—the last sale being below the average of the previous market. The best cows sold at a little advance: poorer grades go off stowly. Veals rather dull at former quotations. Sheep and lambs in good demand, and slightly improved in price. Swine in good demand, as last week's rates.
